

-legacy boosters should be grandfathered under any new standards as long as they continue to function properly

-any booster registration requirements should not place a burden on consumers and must protect their information!