

To Whom This May Concern At The Federal Communications Commission including Chairman Julius Genachowski, Commissioners Michael Copps, Mignon Clyburn, Robert McDowell, and the U.S. State Department etc.

With the recent UN declaration on internet access and freedom as human rights, we urge you to enact legislation to:

- * Promote and support internet access and freedom as human rights nationally.
- * Regulate and require services providers to provide internet services nationally on par with utilities services.
- * Support schools, organizations and communities financially if necessary to acquire necessary equipment and tools (such as the One Lap Top Per Child Program: <http://one.laptop.org/>, <http://www.olpcnews.com/>) to access the internet as needed.
- * Promote and support UN and global alliance to advance global internet access and freedom as human rights.
- * Support and collaborate with UN and global alliance to provide and advance global internet access equipment and tools□□ for meaningful, transformative and accelerated changes, emancipation, transformation or liberation in social structures, human rights, the common good and well being of the global society and community; rights, capabilities and abilities to access, utilize and be part of the on line technology and social networks are necessary.
- Thank you for your caring, empathy, efforts and leadership in supporting and advancing the needs and well being of global citizens and communities.□
