

Commenting on the 17 construction permits that were offered but not sold or were defaulted in prior auctions, the national economy being what it is, these 17 permits are more or less considered inventory that should be packaged and discarded under separate arrangement not to interfere with new auction.

2). Comment on Upfront Payment: auction 93 is going off in bad economy; a consideration to waive or make low adjustment in some locations may be helpful. Also, bid bond is it acceptable.

3). Auction Procedures Comment is not available at this time.