

Unauthorized 3rd party billing from Amerivision which is a subsidiary of USBI. I never authorized any 3rd party billing and was surprised to see charges on my Verizon bill. This is simple and cut and dry consumer fraud. Over the past year I have unknowingly paid on average $30/month.

Verizon said that they are required by the government to allow such 3rd party charges. This should not be allowed without express endorsement from the consumer.