

I believe in Net Neutrality and think the FCC has the right to enforce it.

I believe that Comcast's blocking of HBO Go on the Roku box (which can be used to watch shows on your TV) while supporting it on laptops (which perhaps compete less directly with Comcast's own VOD services) is a net neutrality violation and should be investigated by the FCC.