

If this transaction between AT&T and Qualcomm is allowed to proceed it should only be allowed to do so with tough regulatory conditions one of them being AT&T must divest some of the Qualcomm spectrum to smaller carriers like MetroPCS and Leap Wireless who are starved of spectrum even as AT&T claims it faces a spectrum shortage so it can try to merge with T-Mobile and get more spectrum for itself it can hog. I would prefer to see this deal though also denied.