

I urge you to require television broadcasters to disclose their schedules, advertisers, and program sponsors on the internet. I encourage you to set a deadline for the information to be posted in a searchable form. Public access to information about how our public airwaves are being used is valuable; let's make it as easy as possible for volunteer analyses of the privilege's use to occur.

Thank you.

K.G.H. Nicholes

Martinsdale MT 59053

19 December 2011