

AT&T has gone off crying like a baby about how this denial of their T-Mobile merger is going to hurt them and their customers where in reality it means tens of thousands of jobs saved, lower prices from competition at both AT&T and T-Mobile and the only losers are a bunch of lawyers and bankers who didn't get to skim off their cut from that $39B deal.