

All I want to know is, why is it that I pay over $150 a month for cable television and yet I see commercials. For the amount of money that I and close to everyone in this country pays for television there should be NO COMMERCIALS. NONE.