

The FCC itself doesn't even know what its mission is, typical. You people are all over the board with your ineffective and wasteful nonsense. This agency needs its budget stripped and government employees reassigned to something useful or fired. FCC is bloated, worthless and serves no purpose other than wasting tax payer money and micromanaging American's liberties. Keep your worthless hands off the Internet.