

In the past few days I have see several things about vulgerty and freedom of expression on TV. I deeply believe in freedom of speech. the right of people to speak freely on issues is vital in a free society. HOWEVER, I do not think that freedom includes showing Janet Jackson's boob during the Super Bowl or to exclaim Fk on an Awards show in prime time. There is a huge difference between ideas and vulgarty. thank you

Bob