

I am very much supportive of Video Assisted STS as a mandated service. My friend was Bill, now deceased, but I know there must be other people like him who would benefit from visual speech to speech. He had severe Cerebral Palsy, and his speech was very much affected, but he was a wonderful person. I would have used this service to communicate with Bill. Also, VID-STIS can provide access to emergency services not available to many potential users now.