

I am in favor of the FCC mandating Video Assisted Speech-to-Speech. I have Primary Lateral Sclerosis, a neuro-muscular disorder which affects my ability to move and speak. Also, VID-STS can potentially lead to employment for many users because telephone access is generally a prerequisite to obtaining employment and carrying out job tasks.