

I urge the FCC to mandate VID-STS as TRS service to support my friends and clients who have speech disabilities. I am an allied medical professional with a client who can use VID-STS. Additionally, VID-STS can potentially lead to employment for many users because telephone access is generally a prerequisite to obtaining employment and carrying out job tasks.