

DO NOT ALLOW further consolidation of media ownership!! The openness of our society depends on having access to many sources of information. If "competition" is so great for the rest of our society, it should be the core of our media markets!