

I have a question regarding use by a local government department. The department is licensed (KCR-281). They never use call letters, unit designations. They call each other by name on the radio, play music and repeatedly make personal conversation and comments. Is this legal and if it is not, how can this be corrected?