Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service, CC Docket No. 96-45; Lifeline
*and Link Up, WC Docket No. 03-109

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On January 19, 2012, counsel to Reunion Communications filed an ex parte letter correcting several wholesale toll restriction service rates previously provided by AT&T on November 7, 2011.¹ Upon further review by AT&T's subject matter expert, we agree with CGM's corrections (e.g., several rates were transposed) with one exception: the Illinois rate of $5.38 is correct. This rate is contained in AT&T Illinois's resale tariff. Additionally, AT&T (and thus CGM) inadvertently listed one business rate in Kentucky as "residential" in its filing. The two residential toll restriction service rates in Kentucky are $4.99 and $4.12 ($1.25 is not a residential rate).

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Cathy Carpino

¹ Letter from John Heitmann, Counsel to Reunion Communications, to Marlene Dortch, FCC, WC Docket Nos. 11-42, 03-109, CC Docket No. 96-45 (filed Jan. 19, 2012); Letter from Cathy Carpino, AT&T, to Marlene Dortch, FCC, WC Docket Nos. 11-42, 03-109, CC Docket No. 96-45 (filed Nov. 7, 2011). As required by the Commission's rules, AT&T filed a redacted version of its confidential filing on November 7, 2011, and included in that redacted version its wholesale toll restriction service rates as Exhibit C. For reasons unknown at this time, the Secretary's office has not posted the redacted version of this filing on ECFS. We only became aware of this issue today and we are following up with the Secretary's office to ensure that our November 7, 2011, redacted filing be made publicly available as soon as possible.
