

Please end the sports blackout rule. It is not fair for taxpayers to foot the bill for stadiums, but then get blacked out of watching the sports teams that play in them. Also it does not seem like TV blackouts are necessary in the age of internet streaming, digital cable TV set top boxes, etc. Sports should not have any trouble leveraging revenue in 2012 even without a blackout rule.