

My concern involves Fed and local Universal Service Charges and fees. I have tried to ascertain where these funds are being held and to whom they are being paid. I have been unable to find anything relating to my inquiry. It has been brought to my attention these funds are providing phones and services to those who cannot afford to pay for them on their own. If this is true, then such billing should not be mandatory, but rather an individual decision.