

Please end the blackout rule. We are Chargers fans and because of our difficult economic situation are unable to afford tickets to the games. The only way we are able to enjoy the Charger games with our family is by watching them on TV. It is very disappointing to our children when the games are not broadcast as we enjoy watching them together.

Thank you,

Monica Reyes