

Tickets for family of 4= $400

Parking at stadium= $25

Food/concessions= $100

Who can afford to go week after week? I support our team but why can't I see them on TV if there are still 1500 tickets unsold?

It's wrong, wrong wrong! How about if we all stop watching/going to games until the NFL does something? I bet that would get someone's attention!
