

Dear Sirs,

The television blackout rule should be put to bed, it is an outdated policy. The NBA, NHL, MLB allow for their games to be televised, it would be discriminatory to not allow fans also to watch NFL games. Many people today are unemployed, many companies are making cutbacks, so why make americans suffer more. Allow the taxpayers to at least enjoy 3 hours of enjoyment one every 7 days during the football campaign.