

I am unable to afford to attend the football games live due to exorbitant prices yet am unable to watch the games on television due to blackouts. This is ridiculous because the team is asking for taxpayer money to build a new stadium and currently play in a stadium owned by the city. Please remove this antiquated rule.