

Please get rid of rule. 72 hrs before a game does not take account that people get paid on a Friday and games have to be sold out by Thursday. Baseball and basketball games are still aired on TV despite not selling out. Football makes enough money, you have to give back to the fans who are mostly unemployed during these hard times. Let us have our moment for 3 hrs to cheer on our team. Give back to the hard American just trying to survive.