

To Whom It May Concern:

I hope you can help me - is there a way you can make non-profit and political campaign organizations accountable for making calls to private residences? Similar to this post:

http://usnews.msnbc.msn.com/_news/2012/02/15/10418510-us-cracking-down-on-dinner-interrupting-marketing-robocalls#.Tzwsmy7gbe8.mailto

Because I keep on receiving calls from non-profit and political campaign organizations - I've tried to tell them to put me on their "Do Not Call List", but they hang up on me before I can finish my sentence. They don't give me a chance to talk at all - all they want to do is talk my head off. My family is going through a very rough economic time right now and we don't have the luxury to buy anything much - much less donate money - I've told the callers this, but they won't hear it and go on about donating $50.00 instead of $100.00.

PLEASE HELP PUT A STOP TO THIS INSANITY!