

Why would you knowingly approve a system which is known to interfere with the all-pervasive GPS used and relied upon by the vast majority of taxpayers? The evidence is clear. Please don't mess with something that already works well and is important to so many people.