

Please do not allow GPS to be privatized. I use it to navigate my boat or to find things on land and to get places in my car. Allowing a system to interfere with the GPS system is not in the best interest of the public. It may not be a problem that is correctible. If you do decide against the public, at least bring back LORAN which is a reliable system