

I use GPS daily, either in my car or on the water in my 28' sloop, for accurate navigation. My safety, and that of my family and friends, has come more and more to depend on fast, accurate information via the GPS system. Please continue a strong policy against allowing any commercial encroachment on this vital service. Thank you.