

I am opposed to the proposal by LightSquared and hope it will be stopped.

The possibility of it interfering with GPS is not acceptable and will create a dangerous situation for boaters and will cost lives. I am out on the water all the time, many nights and a good GPS signal is critical to sailing at night or under bad weather conditions.

I ask that the FCC stop the LighSquared project and not allow it to go forward.