

I am a routine user of civilian GPS for both boating and business reasons. Any degradation of GPS service will have an adverse impact on my quality of life and safety when boating. Request you disapprove any request for bandwidth which will degrade current and future GPS service.