

Thank you for your attention to this very important matter. My family uses GPS for Marine navigation many times during the year. There are no road signs on the ocean and therefore we rely heavily on the use GPS. Thank you for your decisions thus far and we certainly hope that you continue to keep our safety in mind. The Thibeault Family