

I oppose any potential conflicts by private corporations to marine and air GPS Use. LightSquared's network would interfere with Marine GPS signals and could endanger the safety of those in marine waters depending on GPS for navigation. As there has been no remedy to LightSquared's network interference they should not be licensed for use of the public airwave spectrum.