

Dear Sirs:

I have two GPS units. One I use for hiking and the other in the car and in the boat. These units are invaluable for knowing where you are and how to get to your destination. Please don't allow this valuable service to be adversely affected by anyone regardless of the benefit.

Thank you,

David Marsh