

I am a commercial shrimper and the accuracy of my GPS is critical to my operations at sea, not only to be able to make money but also to navigate safely in adverse weather conditions. So if there is a threat of accuracy please make sure that my GPS accuracy is maintained in order for me and many others to make a living at sea