

Personal Locator Beacons that use GPS are becoming affordable by the average boater and their use will grow exponentially over the next decade.

Having an unreliable GPS signal will cost time and ultimately lives.

Please don't approve this technology.