

I live on the Wando River, (Charleston, SC area) where I run my 20' boat in near shore and in shore waters. There is limited VHF and cell phone connections in many of the waters that I boat in. I live by my Garmin GPS, especially in low light conditions. I requesting that you not approve any cellular broadband service that will interfere with my GPS reception.

Respectfully yours,

Nick Treseder