

my wife and I rely on GPS when traveling on the water and in the car. I can't imagine why any agency representing all the people could grant a permit that would jeopardize the operation of GPS . On star systems save lives through accurate location via GPS as do other emergency services. Let this broadband service utilize a band that will not damage the GPS system.