

I use my baot for pleasure and business. I need the GPS to function as it currently does without interference from the LightSquared Co or any other source. I use the GPS for navigation on inland bays with depth soundings and off shore in the Gulf of Mexico for navigation between locations along the Texas Gulf Coast on Boat Charters for pay.

Leave the GPS Alone without interference from LightSquared Co or any other source.