

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

It is obvious that greed and power has fogged thy senses, with the arising of monopoly what would be of small business, entrepreneurship, and competition..the main motors of the US economy...you all know the impact and the damage that it might cause...so its time to hear the voice of the people which are discontent with this ban.....

Regards,

Kevin Philippe

United States of America