

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

Nobody should be allowed to monopolize our print and broadcast media. This is a blatant attack on the idea of the american dream. If no one new is allowed a chance to succeed in business how will innovation come around? What kind of message does this send to any small business? Please reconsider this before there are no independent views to allow us to question what is the definition of truth.

Regards,

ronald lempa

United States of America