

As a recreational boater, GPS plays a direct role in allowing me to safely complete my cruises and avoid hazards at sea. Any interference with the GPS system will necessarily compromise safety.

I am against allowing encroachment of services in nearby spectral space that can possibly interfere with GPS signals.