

Please do not diminish the function of GPS. As a charter boat captain, I realize that this technology is essential to the large number of businesses and individuals who contribute to the greater U.S. economy. Fishermen and mariners require effective GPS capability as well as satellite support for water temperature analyses. Please consider the large scale ramifications of decisions that would adversely impact GPS capability. Thank you for your consideration of this matter.