

I support your recommendation to stop LightSquared's proposed use of frequencies adjacent to the GPS system. I use the GPS for navigation of my boat and my life and property are put at risk by any interference with the GPS system.