

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

Allowing monopolies simply means turning media into the political mouthpiece of the owner. Another place where money equals political power. News stops being news and becomes propaganda, for instance.

Free access to unbiased information is a cornerstone of democracy.

Please keep it that way.

Regards,

Dennis D'Asaro

United States of America