

The gps system that exists today is crucial to me and my business for quickly and accurately locating client's addresses on business calls.

It is also a key to safely running my recreational boats in the narrow channels that exist in coastal waters.

GPS should not be negatively impacted by wireless broadband.

Please protect the integrity of our existing gps systems.