

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

I am writing to express my deep opposition to the proposed lifting of the current ban limiting media monopolies. We already have drifted way too far in that direction already with disastrous results.

In an era of slick marketing, crafty propaganda, Orwellian doublespeak, and greenwashing, we need less corporate influence, not more.

Please do not shrink from protecting the public.

Regards,

David Gray

United States of America