

I am a boater in the Great Lakes and rely solely on the GPS system for navigation. To cause this to be unreliable is dangerous. Wireless broadband is important but should not interfere with GPS. LightSquared's Proposal shows there will be interference with no remedies. Please protect the integrity of GPS signal and stop LightSquared's current proposal.