

I use the GPS service for marine navigation on Long island Sound and worry that it would become unreliable if negatively impacted by LightSquared plans as it proposes. Therefore, I strongly urge the FCC to oppose those plans and to prevent any entity from doing anything to degradade the service. I am relying on the FCC to protect the integrtly of the GPS signal so that current users can be confident about its current availability and reliability.