

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

Just how much further are you planning on destroying truth in media? You think rolling back the protections against the creation of asshole right wing fascist pieces of shit like Fox serve the public interest? How can you even consider adding to the disaster you have already created? Are you just a bunch of corporate ass kissing fascist fuck ups yourselves?

Regards,

Mark Bell

United States of America