

To FCC Commissioners Genachowski, Clyburn and McDowell:

Dear Commissioners,

I am old enough to remember real newspapers and fine television journalism. While we can never return to those times, all of our youth deserve respectful media, not more of the Murdoch type that is threatening the very fabric of the UK at this moment.

Regards,

Beverly Williams

United States of America